Italic/Bold

The only place where bold characters are allowed is the title of the work. Use italics for: titles of books and journals, foreign words, words/phrases you want to highlight. Also use italics if they are already inserted in the quoted text.

Tables

All tables/figures should be numbered with Arabic numerals. Headings should be placed above tables/figures, centered. Leave one line space between the heading and the table. All tables/figures must be numbered consecutively, all figures, and all tables respectively. Source of the data from the tables should be mentioned between each table (Times New Roman 10, italic, aligned left). References cited in tables or figure legends should be included in the reference list.

Figures

Figures should be high quality (1200 dpi for line art, 600 dpi for grayscale and 300 dpi for colour, at the correct size). Figures should be supplied in one of the following file formats: JPEG or GIF.
